PRODUCERS COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

Welcome to Producers Cooperative Association's e-Newsletter. Producers Cooperative has been helping farmers and ranchers in the Brazos Valley and surrounding areas with Everything Ag since 1943. Now introducing the same great valuable information in a digital format.

A Message from the Board

Due to the on-going challenges with Covid-19 your Board of Directors has decided to move the 2020 annual meeting to a virtual format. This move is allowed by the memberships large and overwhelmingly positive response to our recent by-law amendment proposal. Thank you for participating in the voting process. Our next member newsletter will outline how the membership will be able to participate in this year's governance process.

The Covid-19 pandemic has affected everyone, and we are very proud that Producers Cooperative was never interrupted in its ability to produce and offer the essential products, programs, and services to our agricultural community.

Bell County Producers Service Location

Producers Cooperative Association has a service location in Bell County located in the community of Heidenheimer, seven miles south of Temple. Scheduled biweekly deliveries from our Bryan location to our Heidenheimer warehouse have been established to meet the request of our customers. This location maintains a selection of agronomy products and a limited selection of feed and other products. But we strive to service our customers by taking their orders for any products we offer. Ordering and delivery schedules: order by noon on Saturday for Tuesday and order by noon on Wednesday for Friday. The warehouse is located at 5580 Avenue F. Heidenheimer. Marshal Bell, location lead, may be reached at 254-983-1070 to answer any of your questions.

From The Ground Up

From The Ground Up educates our friends and neighbors in the Brazos Valley about agriculture and its impact on their everyday lives. Be sure to watch our weekly televised segment at approximately 6:15am on Thursdays or during the Saturday 6 o'clock evening news on KBTX-TV 3, Bryan-College Station's CBS affiliate.

Agricultural Goes Virtual

Agriculture is an ever-changing science and as farmers and ranchers we strive to stay up to date on the latest advancements and news. Check out these two great virtual learning opportunities: Texas A&M Beef Cattle Short Course and Virtual Beef 706. The Beef Cattle Short Course will feature over 20 educational sessions that will include best cattle practices, new technologies and other hot topics in the industry. Virtual Beef 706 will teach attendees about the food side of the beef industry and will be free to attendees. Do not miss out on these opportunities to stay current on the latest in agriculture.
