Route Delivery Available

Did you know that Producers Cooperative Association has route delivery trucks that run biweekly? With six route trucks running in every direction from our main location in Bryan, we have you covered. There is a one ton minimum order on feed, but almost all Producer's products are available. You can call our Inside Sales team at 979-778-2864, text them at 979-314-3524, or email them at feedsales@producerscooperative.com, and see which route fits you best. Our team will give you a call two days in advance of the run to see what you would like added to your order.

Stop By Our Virtual Booth At The Beef Cattle Short Course

Even though the Texas A&M Beef Cattle Short Course is virtual this year, that doesn't mean you have to miss out on learning how to better grow and market your cattle. Here at Producers Cooperative Association we offer a wide range of products, programs, and services to help every farmer and rancher get the most out of their harvest. Be sure to stop by our virtual booth with the Beef Cattle Short Course and see what we can do for you!
