Texas Farm Bureau Webinar: The Road Ahead for Texas Agriculture

The COVID-19 pandemic has taken toll on Texas farmers and ranchers. The federal assistance, while appreciated, falls far short of what is needed to address the losses suffered by Texas legislature. This webinar will provide an outlook on future congressional action by U.S. House Agriculture Committee ranking member and former chairman Mike Conaway. An economic analysis will be provided by Dr. Joe Outlaw and Dr. Bart Fischer of the Agricultural & Food Policy Center at Texas A&M University.
