May 2024

Dear Colleague,

It's officially summer here in the Canadian prairies and over the next week I'm helping stage a music festival with my friends and family in the boreal forest of Saskatchewan. After that, I'm off to Porto & The North of Portugal. I know, neither of those places are Africa related, but great experiences nonetheless!

Speaking of Africa . . . we're very pleased to announce that both Tipilikwani Camp and the JW Marriott Masai Mara Lodge will reopen in July after a few tumultuous weeks in the Mara. Meanwhile, Mara Siana is now offering discounted high season rates — check out details below.

They aren't the only ones with high season specials. The Royal Livingstone at Victoria Falls and Bazaruto Island Resort in Mozambique are currently offering a 30% discount on standard STO rates (*conditions apply). Get the details in our News at a Glance section below!

Are you interested in attending Africa OnShow in Toronto, Chicago or Los Angeles in November? Contact us for more information.

We wish you sunshine and safe travels in June.

Warm regards,

Jenna, Ana, Paula & Jane

East Africa's Eye in the Sky

Take off for high adventure on a scenic flight over Mount Kilimanjaro and the elephant herds of the wildlife rich Amboseli ecosystem with AeroCruise in Nairobi.

Kilimanjaro is not just the highest mountain in Africa, but also the world's tallest freestanding mountain. Rising majestically to an elevation of 5,895 meters (19,341 feet), this massive dormant stratovolcano boasts three distinct volcanic cones: Kibo, Mawenzi and Shira. Read More

Take Hemingway's Advice - Get Back to Africa

"All I wanted to do was get back to Africa," wrote Ernest Hemingway in The Green Hills of Africa. "We had not left it, yet, but when I would wake in the night I would lie, listening, homesick for it already."

Mara Siana Camp is the perfect place to get back to Africa in the 21st century.

Walking on the Wild Side

A walking safari in South Africa is a very different experience to a traditional game drive. This is your opportunity to discover the surrounding flora and fauna, paying attention to the small things that might otherwise be missed.

You also learn basic tracking techniques used by Garonga's experienced guides and trackers, who make it look so easy that you won't even notice them doing it.
