First Years & Transfers: Discoveries Orientation Work Your Passions.

Projects that can be shared widely.

Exercises designed to reflect the diverse military experiences of our three co-directors: two Marines and service members by enrolling as many as fifteen, 4-person teams, to compete in three military-oriented activities.

LEARN MORE

Mark your calendars for your first big opportunity this year to meet with employers at the Fall Career & Internship Fair. These companies are hiring for both internships and full time positions for post-graduation from majors across all of campus.

LEARN MORE

LastPass stores all your websites, saved usernames, and passwords in a password vault, so that you can launch your preferred websites and seamlessly auto-login without having to enter usernames and passwords!

LEARN MORE

We want to hear from you! If you participated in Discoveries Orientation, please fill out the following short survey to tell us how we did! Your feedback will help us shape our programming and help us improve the experience for all incoming first years.

Click here to take the survey.

We’d love to hear from you! If you participated in Discoveries Orientation, complete the following short survey to tell us how we did! Your feedback will help us shape our programming and help us improve the experience for all incoming first years.

We’d love to hear from you! If you participated in Discoveries Orientation, complete the following short survey to tell us how we did! Your feedback will help us shape our programming and help us improve the experience for all incoming first years.

LEARN MORE

Let’s Co-Curate our Campus!

DU students of any/no faiths are invited to join this facilitated dialogue, to share authentically, learn

The Interfaith Dialogue Series is part of the campus-wide initiative to foster greater understanding, inclusivity, and respect through meaningful conversations. Whether it’s a workshop, training or a workshop, we’ve got options! programming focused on gaining marketable skills, meaning conversations. Whether it’s a workshop, training or a workshop, we’ve got options!

Interested in coming together across beliefs, philosophies and experiences?

LEARN MORE

For starters, come test out and help curate the furniture for the new buildings by rolling through our furniture fair:

Let’s Co-Curate our Campus!

So how can you as a student be involved?

The Interfaith Dialogue Series is part of the campus-wide initiative to foster greater understanding, inclusivity, and respect through meaningful conversations. Whether it’s a workshop, training or a workshop, we’ve got options! programming focused on gaining marketable skills, meaning conversations. Whether it’s a workshop, training or a workshop, we’ve got options!

Interested in coming together across beliefs, philosophies and experiences?

LEARN MORE

Run or walk with Chancellor Haefner and Vice Chancellor Creech for

Meet at the North Stairs of the Ritchie Center.

Run or Walk with Chancellor Haefner & VC

The Undergraduate Student Government (USG) is the student voice on campus, and learning new skills for meaningful conversations. Whether it’s a workshop, training or a workshop, we’ve got options! programming focused on gaining marketable skills, meaning conversations. Whether it’s a workshop, training or a workshop, we’ve got options!

Interested in coming together across beliefs, philosophies and experiences?

LEARN MORE

As you may have noticed, there’s a lot of construction going on around campus. The buildings

Beginning Sept. 25 (6 week series)

LEARN MORE

The AAC, Special Events Room (290)

Friday & Saturday, September 27-28

LEARN MORE

Even if you study business, you can find a starting point in all areas of the curriculum.

LEARN MORE

You have received this email because you are a student of the University of Denver.

You have received this email because you are a student of the University of Denver.

You have received this email because you are a student of the University of Denver.

You have received this email because you are a student of the University of Denver.

You have received this email because you are a student of the University of Denver.