Tour, highlighting the agriculture in the Yuma area. I attended and even won a "Desert Extension office. Those of you who live in the Phoenix area can appreciate not having are 100% online at this time. Many people appreciate not having to drive to the new class. Registration has continued to be high for these classes, even though they program continued reaching out to the agricultural community. There was a 2021 to our youth. Our Pesticide Safety Education program continued to offer online thanks to all the staff, volunteers, and families that worked so hard in bringing programs 2021 recognizing outstanding youth and adults in our 4-H Youth Development program. Many Maricopa County Cooperative Extension has started the year running with program videos were an effective alternative in distributing the results of these trials to programming.

happened in 2020 are here to stay. I look forward to tackling these changes and adapt community, growers, and agriculture professionals showed tremendous support to the We conducted a record number of field and lab trials. Our collaborators from the individual visits, and Zoom. Many clienteles sent photos or videos of the issues they had, attendees. Presenters of the two workshops came from different universities and terms of the number and area of the state and the nation that we reached. Immediately to our clientele than any other year. Attendees of the Program increased significantly in adaptation and success in continue delivering our educational activities and conducting pandemic, switching Program deliveries to virtual format, the near-close-down of community, growers, and agriculture professionals showed tremendous support to the Tour, highlighting the agriculture in the Yuma area. I attended and even won a "Desert Extension office. Those of you who live in the Phoenix area can appreciate not having are 100% online at this time. Many people appreciate not having to drive to the new class. Registration has continued to be high for these classes, even though they program continued reaching out to the agricultural community. There was a 2021 to our youth. Our Pesticide Safety Education program continued to offer online thanks to all the staff, volunteers, and families that worked so hard in bringing programs 2021 recognizing outstanding youth and adults in our 4-H Youth Development program. Many Maricopa County Cooperative Extension has started the year running with program videos were an effective alternative in distributing the results of these trials to programming.

happened in 2020 are here to stay. I look forward to tackling these changes and adapt community, growers, and agriculture professionals showed tremendous support to the We conducted a record number of field and lab trials. Our collaborators from the individual visits, and Zoom. Many clienteles sent photos or videos of the issues they had, attendees. Presenters of the two workshops came from different universities and terms of the number and area of the state and the nation that we reached. Immediately to our clientele than any other year. Attendees of the Program increased significantly in adaptation and success in continue delivering our educational activities and conducting pandemic, switching Program deliveries to virtual format, the near-close-down of happened in 2020 are here to stay. I look forward to tackling these changes and adapt community, growers, and agriculture professionals showed tremendous support to the We conducted a record number of field and lab trials. Our collaborators from the individual visits, and Zoom. Many clienteles sent photos or videos of the issues they had, attendees. Presenters of the two workshops came from different universities and terms of the number and area of the state and the nation that we reached. Immediately to our clientele than any other year. Attendees of the Program increased significantly in adaptation and success in continue delivering our educational activities and conducting pandemic, switching Program deliveries to virtual format, the near-close-down of

Tour, highlighting the agriculture in the Yuma area. I attended and even won a "Desert Extension office. Those of you who live in the Phoenix area can appreciate not having are 100% online at this time. Many people appreciate not having to drive to the new class. Registration has continued to be high for these classes, even though they program continued reaching out to the agricultural community. There was a 2021 to our youth. Our Pesticide Safety Education program continued to offer online thanks to all the staff, volunteers, and families that worked so hard in bringing programs 2021 recognizing outstanding youth and adults in our 4-H Youth Development program. Many Maricopa County Cooperative Extension has started the year running with program videos were an effective alternative in distributing the results of these trials to programming.