to do with how they transported lettuce in days long gone by! Thanks to everyone in Extension office. Those of you who live in the Phoenix area can appreciate not having Summit. Another workshop on Food Safety and the Food Safety Modernization Act Cotton production meeting, and Dr. Ayman Mostafa presented at the SouthWest program continued reaching out to the agricultural community. There was a 2021 to our youth. Our Pesticide Safety Education program continued to offer online thanks to all the staff, volunteers, and families that worked so hard in bringing programs Directors Cut videos were an effective alternative in distributing the results of these trials to more. We conducted a record number of field and lab trials. Our collaborators from the University of Arizona, plus representatives from the USDA-ARS and industry. The Program attendees. Presenters of the two workshops came from different universities and attended these events via Zoom. We provided 35 Continuing Education Units for the Extension events to Zoom online format starting March 2020. Over 1500 persons of the situation showed how resilient our ag communities, the Programs, and personnel happened in 2020 are here to stay. I look forward to tackling these changes and adapt community, growers, and agriculture professionals showed tremendous support to the Arizona dairy industry this spring and late into 2020, local and national dairy person dairy show opportunity for Arizona youth. Even with the severe impacts to the have been no opportunities in our state for these kids to show off their projects. Dairy Thirteen youth from across the state came to Buckeye to exhibit their dairy cattle. With Arizona Youth Compete in the First Arizona Fall showmanship, breed, and costume contests. Show feed manufacturers, and local business and family sponsors were eager to help with this Arizona Youth Compete in the First Arizona Fall for more information, please contact about their score, the questions they missed, and the correct answers. The email also test. The Pesticide Safety Education Program (PSEP) Coordinator created a new online practice testing tool to assist people preparing for the National Pesticide Applicator Certification Core Exam. It is a 90-minute timed test, consisting of 90 multiple-choice certifications in Arizona. It is a 90-minute timed test, consisting of 90 multiple-choice questions that are based on the National Core Exam. The correct answers are provided at the end of each question. Users can practice pacing themselves as they progress through the same team that wrote the National Core Exam and embedded a 90-minute timer along protective equipment, and safe pesticide handling practices. It is an open invitation to nutrition can do for individuals. March is National Nutrition Month® across America, and it is an annual campaign established by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. It is an open invitation to digital handouts, and develop a Customer Relationship Management (CRM) database to participating Master Gardener volunteers. By photos and questions are uploaded, and volunteer assignments are sent to the Gardeners beforehand. Zoom links and resource documents are sent out through email are given instructions to submit photos and submit questions, to be reviewed by Master panel of Master Gardeners. The AAMG sessions are offered as hour or longer sessions public is invited to bring their home horticulture questions to a Live Q&A session with a launched. Once a week, the Ask A Master Gardener Program has launched a new Ask A Master. Project CENTRL with the challenges of the pandemic. For the onset of the COVID-19 was an unprecedented year, with the Arizona Center for Rural Cooperative Extension, that