March 2024 News

March is Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month

2024 Challenger Basketball

WWVDN wrapped up its 2024 season for Challenger Basketball and it was phenomenal! There were 16 participants in our Youth League and 21 in our Adult League. Kudos to Coach McFetridge and Coach VanOcker for a great year! Read more

It's all very exciting.

A Note From Parent to Parent...

March is a very busy month for Parent to Parent and Walla Walla Valley Disability Network. We have some great guest speakers to round out our Transition Workshop Series - one on Guardianship and alternatives and another one on Healthy Relationships. We will be having a No Host Dinner at the Big House Brew Pub for any parents/caregivers. There will be Family Bowling each Saturday at Bowlaway Lanes from noon to 2:00pm for recreation. We will round out the month with the Transition Expo - over 20 agencies in one location available to answer your questions on life after high school, with food and raffle prizes as well. Finally, we will celebrate Easter with an Easter egg hunt and potluck. This will be fun for the whole family. Consider joining us for one or all of these offerings this month. See all the details on the calendar at our website, www.wvvdn.org.

If you can't make one of these offerings but want to chat or have questions, feel free to reach out to myself or Ysabel. We can schedule a time to meet with you. We can come to you, or meet at our office or in the community. There is so much information about resources and opportunities that it can be overwhelming. We would like to help ease some of the burden.

We look forward to seeing you this month.

Angie and Ysabel, Your Parent to Parent Coordinators

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

Music by Alan Menken
Lyrics by Howard Ashman & Tim Rice
Book by Linda Woolverton

Directed by Brad Willcuts
Music Directed by Robb Harrison

August 9-17th | Cordiner Hall

Beauty and the Beast is a captivating tale of love and acceptance that follows Belle, a young woman with a passion for books, as she finds herself drawn to an enchanted castle inhabited by a fearsome beast. Despite their initial differences, Belle discovers the kind heart hidden beneath the Beast's exterior, leading to an unexpected romance that challenges societal norms. With the help of charming enchanted objects and their unwavering belief in true love, they embark on a transformative journey that teaches them the power of inner beauty and compassion.

Walla Walla Summer Theater, in partnership with Walla Walla Valley Disability Network, is offering an accessible showing Saturday, August 10 at 2:00 pm. Pre-register thru wvvdn.org before June 1, 2024 and receive a promo code for a 50% discount on your seats. SOAR participants please register through the SOAR program.

Adult Day Center

At the Walla Walla Senior Center

Our mission is to enhance the physical, cognitive and social experience of adults so that they can remain independent as long as possible. The program is open to all adults 18+ with any physical or mental impairments. We create a safe environment for participants to find community and support. The ADC also offers respite (rest) to caregivers.

The ADC is a program of the Walla Walla Senior Center.

Child Care Accessibility Surveys

Take part in a survey about child care accessibility!

The Government Accountability Office—a nonpartisan agency that conducts research for the U.S. Congress—has been asked to conduct a survey on child care accessibility.

If you would like to share your experience accessing child care, please take a few minutes to complete one of the following surveys:

Are you a parent or guardian of a child with a disability?

Are you a person with a disability who is a parent or guardian?*
