President Washington says 'It's Mason's time'

Declaring "It's Mason's time," Mason President Gregory Washington laid out ambitious plans for the university at his Investiture ceremony and, in a moving close to his remarks, dedicated himself and his team to ensuring Mason "does things that matter, for the world." Washington also took the opportunity to pay tribute to the Mason community during the Investiture ceremony, held on August 25, 2021. The Mason Environmental Alumni Network is now live!
