Every Child Deserves a Champion

When Anthony and Jamie's* mom was hospitalized, the boys—both nonverbal with special needs—entered foster care. Their journey was filled with challenges: multiple placements, setbacks, and separation from their mother.

Then, CASA volunteer Allison stepped in. She not only advocated for the boys, but also helped their mother re-engage, understand the reunification process, and work toward bringing her children home. Because of Allison's steady support, the family is together again and thriving.

More than 500 children in our community have experienced foster care this year. Every one of them deserves a champion like Allison. With your support, CASA volunteers provide stability, compassion, and a voice for children who need it most.

Your gift isn't just a donation—it's an investment in a child's future.

You can help Change a Child's Story.

ONE Caring Adult
Changes Everything

"Every kid is ONE caring adult away from a success story"

-Josh Shipp

BE THE ONE

What if you could be the one?

The one who listens. The one who shows up.

The one caring adult who helps change the trajectory of a child's life.

Every child is just one caring adult away from a success story. CASA volunteers step into that role, walking alongside children in foster care to ensure their needs are met and their best interests are always prioritized.

Registration is now open for our February training cohort.

We invite you to take the first step and submit an inquiry form to learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer.
