Nominate a student leader! gvsu.edu/iamgv

What Makes an "I am GV" Recipient?

Each year, the I am GV campaign recognizes Lakers in our community who truly embody what it means to give back, get involved, and be dedicated to Grand Valley. Students honored and celebrated by I am GV have shown their leadership through their involvement in a student organization, academics, or on-campus employment. Here's what some past I am GV recipients have to say about leadership and what it means to be GV.

Black History Month Spotlight: Regina King

Regina King (1971-) is an actress and director. Beginning her career in 1985 on the NBC comedy series 227, King has become a sought-after actress. Throughout the 2010s, King's popularity has continued to rise, with award-winning performances in Watchmen and If Beale

Street Could Talk. King's film directorial debut, 2020's One Night in Miami led to her being the first Black female director to have her movie screened at the Venice Film Festival.
