March 2025

Dear Colleague,

Warm greetings from the beautiful island of Malta in the heart of the Mediterranean Sea, where I'm spending a week with Mi Global (formerly Mi Malta), our DMC partner that specializes in luxury tailor-made experiences for both individual travelers and incentive groups.

Please explore the blogs in this monthly Americas newsletter below, all of them carefully curated to inspire clients who are searching for unique travel experiences. And feel free to share the information and stories on your social media and websites.

Additionally, I would like to remind those participating in the upcoming Emotions Trade Show in Lima that you will have the opportunity to schedule one-on-one meetings with our clients from Ecuador (Enchanted Expeditions through its luxury yacht M/Y Passion), Panama (La Coralina Island House), and Chile (Las Torres Patagonia Natural & Cultural Reserve). Jane will also be representing Guyana at Remote Antigua.

We remain at your disposal to create unforgettable experiences in Argentina, Chile, Ecuador, Guyana and Panama.

Best regards,

Ana Kammerer

Don Tito: The Legendary Quintero of Las Torres

The biointensive garden at Hotel Las Torres is a place full of history. The plot was originally called a quinta or “orchard” and those who worked in it were quinteros.

This term was coined in Spain during the 16th century and referred to a “one-fifth” land parcel that a colonial governor gave to a new settler. These quintas were transformed into homesteads with gardens to feed the occupants.
