Guided Pathways Virtual Summit: April 7

All faculty, students, and staff are invited to IVC's Guided Pathways Virtual Summit on Friday, April 7 from 1 - 3:30 pm. As we transition from Guided Pathways as an initiative to a philosophy, it is time to reimagine how we connect students to classes and learning in a way that inspires them to remain on their education pathway. At the summit, we will explore how to start conversations with students early and often about potential learning pathways to establish a framework for fall campus activities. The virtual summit will offer featured speakers along with breakout sessions. Register Now »

College Corps Fellows Attend Mid-Year Leadership Workshop

California Volunteers hosted their first mid-year leadership workshop for College Corps at the University of California, San Diego (UCSD). Fellows engaged in workshops that explored identity, storytelling for inspiration, bridging skills, getting to know the community, and what kind of leaders they want to be. IVC student Yair Rivera was a speaker at the event and shared his experience in the College Corps program and how volunteer work has impacted the community.

NEW IVC PROFESSORS TAKE ESPORTS PROGRAM TO THE NEXT LEVEL

Irvine Valley College's newest sports team isn't fighting it out on the field or contending on the court. They're rallying in rows of 27-inch ViewSonic desktop monitors, locked into the intense graphics glowing on their screens. The IVC Laser Esports Arena is home base for more than 100 students and various faculty who participate in the College's revolutionary esports program. You'll find the impressive "lounge for the leet" on the Irvine Valley College campus, located in the Student Activities Center. Read More »
