We are excited for students to be joining us on campus again soon! Information about hall move-in begins this week, so please visit the Residence Life website for updates and important dates.

Residence Hall Move-in

Students will be welcomed to a Campus course (similar to the one you were enrolled for ONET in spring) during the week of August 24th, when you’ll be making your own course schedule and signing up for your housing, meals, and parking. Please be patient as we prepare for the return of students this fall. If you have any questions about the food pantry, visit uwlfoodbank@uwlax.edu or call 608-304-9350.

WHEN WILL I GET MY EAGLE ID CARD?

You will receive your Eagle ID Card when you check in at your residence hall front desk.

HOW DO I OBTAIN MY EAGLE ID CARD?

All new students living off-campus or commuting:

- Scheduled to pick up your books on Monday, Aug. 31) or Tuesday, Sept. 1 at 10:00 am or later:
  - You will receive your ID card in the Card Office.

- Scheduled to pick up your textbooks on Friday, Aug. 28 at Noon or later:
  - You can pick up your Eagle ID Card at the Dining Hall.

All new students living in a Residence Hall:

- You are required to sign up for a move-in time during move-in.
- There are a few optional and some required. The final schedule for the weekend will be posted during move-in.
- Wait until your assigned time to move your belongings into your room. See below for more information.

WHY IS MY MOVING TIME IMPORTANT?

In most cases, you will be able to go to your residence hall desk and request your ID card. You will still need to upload your photo online and wait for your ID card to be processed before you can use it. You will not be able to enter your residence hall until your ID card is processed. See below for more information.

HAVE I UPLOADED YOUR PHOTO FOR YOUR EAGLE ID CARD?

If your ID was uploaded by someone else, you may need to check with them to confirm that your photo was uploaded. You can also check out additional videos from the UW Credit Union.

Campus Dietician

Jess Harke, the Registered Dietitian with UW-L Dining Services, welcomes you to campus!

Visit the Campus Dietician website while she is out on the dining website, and she can help you! This fall she is offering Zoom meetings or in-person meetings to anyone interested in plant-based eating. She offers one-on-one appointments and group meetings.

Food Pantry

The UW-L Food Pantry is open to all students. If you have any questions about the food pantry, please email uwlfoodbank@uwlax.edu. There is a large variety of different non-perishable items and some perishable when available. To sign up to use the pantry, visit this site. In most cases, you will be able to go to your residence hall desk and request your ID card. You will still need to upload your photo online and wait for your ID card to be processed before you can use it. You will not be able to enter your residence hall until your ID card is processed.

Residence Life Update

New Student Orientation Update

Students will be required to wear a Campus course (similar to the one you were enrolled for ONET in spring) during the week of August 24th, when you’ll be making your own course schedule and signing up for your housing, meals, and parking. Please be patient as we prepare for the return of students this fall. If you have any questions about the food pantry, visit uwlfoodbank@uwlax.edu or call 608-304-9350.

Campaign for students: you have the option of signing up to be a part of the Eagle Group with other commuter students. If you would like to be a part of the Eagle Group, please sign up on Saturday, September 6th from 1:30-2:30pm. You can also check out our list of the UW Credit Union.
