We are excited for students to be joining us on campus again soon! Information about hall move-in and residence hall orientation will continue to be sent out in the coming months. There will be a mix of virtual events—some hosted on Zoom, others through Canvas—and in-person events when it is safe to do so.

You can find an overview of the New Student Orientation schedule here. You can also sign up for our office hours.

WHEN DO I OPT IN TO EAGLE ID-CRC?

You will receive a card in the mail, so you will not need to opt in. You can just wait until your assigned time to move your belongings into your room. See below for more information:

WHAT SHOULD I DO?

WHEN WILL I GET MY EAGLE ID CARD?

Your ID card will be printed and can be picked up when you arrive on campus. If you have submitted a photo and received an e-mail that the photo was approved, your ID card has been printed and will be ready to pick up at your assigned time.

WHERE DO I OPT OUT?

If you chose not to opt in to Eagle ID-CRC, you can opt out of your ID card. To do so, contact the ID Office at uwlcardoffice@uwlax.edu or 608.785.8891.

New Student Orientation Update

Students will be welcomed in a Canvas course similar to the one you were enrolled for START in August. During lab week of August 24, you’ll be learning about UWL’s campus and how to navigate it. You’ll also learn about the different opportunities you have on campus to become involved. During the week of August 30, you’ll be enrolled in a Canvas course similar to how you were enrolled for START in August. You’ll learn about different opportunities you have on campus to become involved.

Campus Dining

The minute you step foot on campus, you will need it to enter your residence hall, access your dining hall, and use UWL’s common areas. The meal plan you choose is your passport to the campus, your key to everything you will need access to at UWL. It’s easy to choose the right plan for you. All new students living in a Residence Hall: Pick up your ID card at your residence hall. Even if you are just dropping off your belongings on August 28, 29 or 30 and you have not received your ID card, you can still use your student ID to sign up for move-in.

New Student Orientation

During New Student Orientation, students will be enrolled in a Canvas course to learn about their residence hall. Students will receive a printed copy of the New Student Orientation schedule. Students are required to complete a Canvas course that is similar to START. Students are also assigned to an Eagle Group based on where they are living on campus and will be contacted to join their group time on Saturday, September 6th from 1:30-2:30pm so they can participate in their group orientation.

Campus Food Pantry

The Campus Food Pantry is open to all faculty, staff, and students at UWL no matter your income. We are located inside the COVE on the second floor of the Student Union. We offer a wide variety of non-perishable food items, personal care products, and cleaning supplies. We are located inside the Student Union in the COVE.

Campus Life

The Campus Life Office offers a variety of programs and services to help you get involved on campus. You will find information about student clubs and organizations, housing and dining, and more in this section.

Important Dates

Residence Life

Residence Life is responsible for the planning and execution of many programs and services available to residents of UWL’s residence halls. If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact us using the information below. We look forward to getting to know you!