IVC Student Diego Victoria Receives Cooke Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship

Associated Students of IVC (ASIVC) President Diego Victoria has been named one of 60 community college recipients of the Cooke Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship. Victoria was one of the 459 semifinalists selected from a pool of more than 1,700 applicants from 380 community colleges nationwide. Read More »

IVC Students Participate in the 24th Annual HTCC Community College Honors Research Conference

Last month, 67 IVC students participated in the 24th Annual Honors Transfer Council of California (HTCC) Research Conference at the University of California, Riverside. IVC's Psi Beta chapter won an Outstanding Abstract Award, and two IVC Honors students were awarded the HTCC Exemplary Achievement Award. Read More »

IVC Tennis and Beach Volleyball Win Big at State Championships

IVC's Men's Tennis doubles team of Nick Grove and Luciano Pardo won the 3C2A Championship title late last month. Grove and Pardo helped IVC finish with a team record of 11-2 overall and 8-0 to win the conference. IVC's No. 1 women's beach volleyball pair of Tessa Marocco and Kenzie Dews completed a fabulous season with a tie for 6th at the 3C2A State Championships. Sophomore Natalia Brandlin and freshman Audrey Fowler also played in the championships held last weekend at West Valley College.

International sensation Dua Lipa captivated audiences during the opening act of the 2024 Grammy Awards, emerging from inside a massive jungle-gym-like metal structure flanked by multiple black-clad dancers - including Irvine Valley College (IVC) graduate Kazuma Inoue.

“It was the most amazing thing I have ever experienced,” said Inoue, who received technical dance training at IVC, earning an associate of arts degree in dance. He continues to hone his skills here, taking hip-hop, modern, and ballet classes. Read More »
