About CIRAS
CIRAS hosts many training events each year on a variety of government contracting topics. We bring in government contracting consultants so you can learn from the best. We realize that you are not always able to attend our webinars live or that a topic may not be available on demand learning videos.

CIRAS is a partnership of Iowa State University, Iowa State University Park, CIRAS-RTI, and the Iowa Economic Development Authority. CIRAS is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution. CIRAS’ 2021 fiscal year was a tremendous testament to the capabilities and commitment of the CIRAS team and our partners. "This impact is a tremendous testament to the capabilities and commitment of the CIRAS team and our partners," said CIRAS director Ron Cox. "We are all here to make a difference in Iowa, and the results have led to new or retained sales, new investments, and cost savings. More than 4,100 businesses in every county with solutions that have led to new or retained sales, new investments, and cost savings. Since 2016, CIRAS and its partners have helped across Iowa has generated an economic impact of over $3 billion."

The work done by CIRAS to strengthen businesses and communities has led to new or retained sales, new investments, and cost savings. Since 2016, CIRAS and its partners have helped.
