September 2024

Dear Colleague,

I hope you've all had an amazing summer of '24 and recharged your batteries for the rest of the year.

The upcoming months will be hectic for the Emerging Destinations team as we attend various trade shows and events (APTA National Forum, ACTA Canada Shows, ASTA Show San Diego, Travel Savers Global Conference, Fora Travel Show, ATTA Adventure World Travel Summit, and USTOA).

In addition, we'll be making sales calls in NY, PA, NE, KS, FL, and TX. Please take a look at our itinerary below or contact us to discover when we will be in your area so that you can schedule an in-person meeting.

Slowly but surely we are entering a high season in Central & South America. However, our clients in Panama, Guyana, Ecuador, Chile & Argentina still have availability and would be more than happy to assist you with any request and offer your clients their extraordinary services and experiences. Some are running special promos (with either a comp night or extra discount) while others still have space for the upcoming Holiday Season.

Don't wait until the last minute! Please take a look at the specials, news, and updates in this newsletter, and feel free to use all our digital materials and blogs for your own website or email blasts.

Adventure awaits and our cool companies & destination in the Americas are ready to welcome you and your clients.

Best regards,

Upcoming Travel!
