ADDRESSING INJUSTICE, BUILDING GLOBAL
PEACE: Free Virtual Summer Workshops for K-12
Educators

Dear Peace Educators and World Citizen Peace
Sites,

Please join the Institute of World Affairs (IWA) at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee for a series of professional development workshops for teachers exploring peacebuilding and human rights! These workshops will be led by facilitators from the Transformation Collaborative.

ADDRESSING INJUSTICE, BUILDING GLOBAL PEACE: Free Virtual
Summer Workshops for K-12 Educators

Each workshop includes two 2-hour virtual sessions with an expectation of an additional two hours of independent work in between.

All sessions will take place from 9-11:00am CDT.

Educators can sign up for one or more sessions. Registration is FREE but Space is Limited!

July 9 & July 16: Justice, Sustainability and Peacebuilding

Explore the intersections between environment, insecurity and violence and discuss ways youth action on the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) can positively impact communities.

July 23 & July 30: Restoring Community and Building Relationships

Draw inspiration from communities around the world in Identifying ways to apply restorative approaches to addressing conflict and injustice and practice global solidarity.
