CINA 2021 Annual RFP Now Open for Eligible Applicants

The CINA 2021 Annual RFP (Request for Proposals) is now open for eligible applicants to submit proposals that address the main challenges represented by the four research themes of the CINA Collaborative Network Analysis (CINA) Collaborative Network Analysis. The CINA mission is supported by three core activities: help DHS with current problems, prepare for the future, and establish credibility and partnerships. DHSTech University (DHSTech) is seeking proposals that address main challenges represented by the four research themes of the CINA Collaborative Network Analysis.

CINA Receives Donations in Washington Regional Garden

CINA has received a donation from a local community garden, which will be used to support the center's work in digital forensic technologies and its support of cybersecurity. The donation is part of the center's ongoing efforts to expand its research and training programs in these areas.

CINA Recruits Deanna Austin

The CINA Director, Jeffrey Hardy, announced the hire of Deanna Austin as the CINA Workforce Development Lead. Austin brings a strong educational/training background to the position, as she holds certification as a Navy Specialist since 2018, and was awarded as George Mason’s Employee of the Month in February 2020.

CINA Network

CINA's Mary Ridgell Recognized as Mason's Employee of the Month

Mary Ridgell, Manager for the Intelligence Basic Course (IBC), received the title of Mason's Employee of the Month. Ridgell is known for her exceptional work ethic and her dedication to the center's mission.

CINA 2021 Annual RFP Now Open for Eligible Applicants

The CINA 2021 Annual RFP (Request for Proposals) is now open for eligible applicants to submit proposals that address the main challenges represented by the four research themes of the CINA Collaborative Network Analysis. The CINA mission is supported by three core activities: help DHS with current problems, prepare for the future, and establish credibility and partnerships. DHSTech University (DHSTech) is seeking proposals that address main challenges represented by the four research themes of the CINA Collaborative Network Analysis.

CINA Receives Donations in Washington Regional Garden

CINA has received a donation from a local community garden, which will be used to support the center's work in digital forensic technologies and its support of cybersecurity. The donation is part of the center's ongoing efforts to expand its research and training programs in these areas.

CINA Recruits Deanna Austin

The CINA Director, Jeffrey Hardy, announced the hire of Deanna Austin as the CINA Workforce Development Lead. Austin brings a strong educational/training background to the position, as she holds certification as a Navy Specialist since 2018, and was awarded as George Mason’s Employee of the Month in February 2020.

CINA Network

CINA's Mary Ridgell Recognized as Mason's Employee of the Month

Mary Ridgell, Manager for the Intelligence Basic Course (IBC), received the title of Mason's Employee of the Month. Ridgell is known for her exceptional work ethic and her dedication to the center's mission.