

Dear Colleague,

Welcome to February, the month of love! To match the theme, Iceland ProCruises has a Valentine's Day gift for you: When booking an "Iceland Circumnavigation" cruise in 2023, guests will receive a special dinner-beverage package for the duration of the voyage.

Love isn't the only thing keeping the Emerging Destinations team busy this February. The team is in full travel mode: Ana is currently doing sales calls in Reno, Truckee and Sacramento while Jane is attending Adventure Connect. As for me? I'm off to Tanzania and Kenya next week to experience two clients in our African portfolio.

Wishing you and your teams a month full of great sales, safe travel and, of course, love!

The Emerging Destinations team
Jenna, Jane, & Ana

Come and be Inspired by Iceland

Iceland. It's not for everyone. It isn't for those who go where everyone else goes. It's not for the conservative traveler. It's for those who travel the world to experience something different, to come back with stories to tell.

The stories of Iceland don't stop as winter comes. They get even more adventurous and more magical, 365 days a year. So welcome to all those who travel with the spirit of adventure, exploring and creativity. It may not be the first place you think of traveling, but it'll be the first place you tell your friends about. Come and be inspired by Iceland!
