

Dear Colleague--

With the holidays upon us, remember to take a moment to slow down and enjoy the little things amid all the hustle and bustle of the season.

Meanwhile, it's not too late to celebrate New Year's Eve in Reykjavik — with its incredible fireworks show — by staying at the Hotel Island and booking a Magical Ice and Northern Lights vacation with Iceland ProTravel. And remember to take advantage of the Early Bird prices at Iceland ProCruises by booking a voyage by December 31st!

Whatever your clients' travel dreams and desires, the Emerging Destinations team is always happy to assist! Book a virtual appointment with me (Jenna) above and let's catch up!

There's Something New in the North Atlantic

It's called the Seaventure, a 164-passenger expedition ship that will carry out Iceland ProCruises Greenland itineraries starting next summer.

The vessel was specifically designed for extraordinary moments. Thanks to its special construction, the small ship is incredibly agile and maneuverable, and able to change course effortlessly for rare or unusual wildlife sightings. Read more...

What's Your Greek Island Style?

Mykonos is for party animals, Santorini for romantics, Corfu for bookworms, Rhodes for history buffs, and Crete for connoisseurs of outdoor adventure and Greek dance. PaxMore can craft your perfect getaway in any of these isles.

Located less than four hours by ferry from the port of Athens, Mykonos is famous for its whitewashed windmills and the best nightlife scene on the Aegean. It's been a popular destination since jet setters first discovered the island during the Swinging Sixties. Read more...

Iceland ProTravel offers individual travel packages that can be adapted to any wants, needs and desires — guided or self-drive tours, horseback riding, fishing or hiking trips, city breaks, or one of their magical Northern Lights tours, IPT promises to plan an Iceland vacation that suits your needs, interests and budget.

Why Not Deck the Halls in Iceland This Year?

How can you make the

Iceland's Best of the Best — Westfjords

Global guidebook publisher Lonely Planet has picked Iceland's Westfjords area as the world's best region to visit in 2022.

Westfjords snatched top honors ahead of other awesome and adventurous regions like Chile's Atacama Desert, Canada's Vancouver Island, the Xishuangbanna area of southern China, Puerto Rico in the Caribbean, and France's Burgundy region. More here.
