Dear Friends,

This morning I was devastated to learn that our incredibly dedicated City Councillor, Jaye Robinson, had passed away. I am heartbroken for her husband and boys, her extended family, and all her staff.

Jaye loved her job and cared deeply about our city. Every conversation with her was always filled with passion for what her constituents entrusted her to do. Jaye was scrappy and tough and strategic, but she also had a genuine warmth and empathetic ear when needed.

Jaye was passionate about the arts and the environment, and so as I reflect on her legacy, which will surely be tremendous, I am grateful to have had the chance to visit with her recently at her Don Valley West Environment Day at York Mills Collegiate. How fitting that together with our MPP Stephanie Bowman, the three of us had a good chat and took a Don Valley West team photo beneath Jaye's banner at an event that exemplified her commitment to the environment.

It was a privilege to work with Jaye and I will really miss her.

~Rachel
