Glendale Foundation Supports Bengal Pride Campaign for A Second Year!

Representatives from The Glendale Foundation presented BEF Chairman, Terence Mullane, with a check for $5,000 to support the Bengal Pride in Educational Excellence Campaign. Dennis DeCarlo, Foundation President, remarked they were very impressed with the results of the Bengal Pride in Educational Campaign and saw the real difference it is making in the lives of the BHS students. To date, the number of students taking the AP tests has grown 180% and has a 60% success rate with students achieving a 3 or better; the SAT test scores have gone up over an average of 150 points and BHS earned a second year on the coveted College Board's AP Honor Roll. DeCarlo said these results inspired them to make a second donation to support The Pride in Educational Excellence Campaign.
