Join Tufts Hillel for Interfaith Shabbat. Share a meal with students of all faiths at a friendly outdoor picnic, to meet new friends and celebrate the Sabbath together.

Ramadan Mubarak! The holy month of Ramadan begins this week. Over the past year, the Muslim Student Association at Tufts University has been working to connect with students of all faiths and backgrounds. This year, we encourage you to participate in our Tufts MSA’s Ramadan Resource List to support this important time of reflection, spiritual growth, and community building.

Offerings include an opportunity to build an iftar (dinner) basket, plans for an iftar on campus, and an online Zoom call with local imams. Check out the Tufts MSA’s Ramadan Resource List

Upcoming Religious Celebrations and Observances

- Easter Sunday, April 4th
- Holy Week
- Ramanavami, April 24th
- Holi Festival of Colors, April 25th
- Passover, April 25th
- Holy Saturday, April 30th
- Good Friday, April 2nd
- Easter Sunday, April 4th
- Holy Week

Inclusive of Hinduism, Jainism, Christianity-Orthodox, and Traditions of Islam and Jewish Community.

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. The Chaplaincy coordinates interfaith activities and organizes services, observances, and programs to all students, staff, and faculty of Tufts University, and visits the various religious centers on campus. The University Chaplaincy is open to all students and is the primary campus resource for faith-based life.

Religious and Philosophical Life Programs

- American Learning Institute for Muslims Summer Program 2021
- Camp Zayed: A Global Community for Young Muslims
- Interfaith Shabbat
- The Healing Gaze
- The Work of Faith in Action for Social Justice
- Upolding Home: An Interfaith Exploration of Housing (In)justice
- Register here for the event.

Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our mission. We are a non-profit organization committed to offering support for the University Chaplaincy. Please consider making a donation today to help us further our mission.

At Tufts University, everyone's religious or spiritual beliefs are honored and respected. We are committed to promoting an inclusive and welcoming environment for all students, staff, and faculty. Students can check out the community to join or start a community.

Subscribe

Amar Chitra Katha (ACK) is an Indian publisher of graphic novels based on biographies, religious figures and stories from around the world. The ACK YouTube page.

The Online Writing Center provides free writing consultation for all Tufts students, staff, and faculty. The center is open to all students and is the primary campus resource for writing support.

The Student Academic Advising and Resources (StAAR) Center is now accepting applications from graduate students to be Academic Mentors or Writing Consultants. Graduate Writing Consultants work one-to-one with both undergraduate and graduate students to help them improve their writing.

The Tufts Jewish Community Center is a nonprofit organization dedicated to building a strong, vibrant Jewish community at Tufts University and throughout the Greater Boston area. We provide educational, cultural, and social programs and events that enrich the Jewish life of our communities.

Support our work by giving today.

Give Today

Register for the event.

Recordings available

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. The Chaplaincy coordinates interfaith activities and organizes services, observances, and programs to all students, staff, and faculty of Tufts University, and visits the various religious centers on campus. The University Chaplaincy is open to all students and is the primary campus resource for faith-based life.

Religious and Philosophical Life Programs

- American Learning Institute for Muslims Summer Program 2021
- Camp Zayed: A Global Community for Young Muslims
- Interfaith Shabbat
- The Healing Gaze
- The Work of Faith in Action for Social Justice
- Upholding Home: An Interfaith Exploration of Housing (In)justice

Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our mission. We are a non-profit organization committed to offering support for the University Chaplaincy. Please consider making a donation today to help us further our mission.

At Tufts University, everyone's religious or spiritual beliefs are honored and respected. We are committed to promoting an inclusive and welcoming environment for all students, staff, and faculty. Students can check out the community to join or start a community.

Subscribe

Amar Chitra Katha (ACK) is an Indian publisher of graphic novels based on biographies, religious figures and stories from around the world. The ACK YouTube page.

The Online Writing Center provides free writing consultation for all Tufts students, staff, and faculty. The center is open to all students and is the primary campus resource for writing support.

The Student Academic Advising and Resources (StAAR) Center is now accepting applications from graduate students to be Academic Mentors or Writing Consultants. Graduate Writing Consultants work one-to-one with both undergraduate and graduate students to help them improve their writing.

The Tufts Jewish Community Center is a nonprofit organization dedicated to building a strong, vibrant Jewish community at Tufts University and throughout the Greater Boston area. We provide educational, cultural, and social programs and events that enrich the Jewish life of our communities.

Support our work by giving today.

Give Today

Register for the event.

Recordings available