Ramadan Mubarak! The holy month of Ramadan begins this week. Over the past year, the Muslim Student Center has continued to provide support and programming for our community. This year, we will be forming groups of less than 10 people to ensure that social distancing practices are followed.

Join us for "Passover Sunday." Orthodox Christians often observe this Sunday on a date different from the date on which Jews observe the holiday. It celebrates the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, marking the beginning of Holy Week that culminates in Easter or Resurrection Sunday.

Vaisakhi

This Sikh festival celebrates the annual harvest. It is especially important in North India. It is named after the month Vaisakh. For Sikhs, it is also the anniversary of the founding of the religion. On this day, Sikhs commemorate the martyrdom of the fourth Sikh Guru, Guru Tegh Bahadur. A special program will be held on this day, where we will celebrate the festival with Guru Granth Sahib and offer special kirtans.

Ongoing through Wednesday, 5.12.2021

Lent

The final fertility festival, celebrating the Earth's fecundity and anticipating the power of the sun and the Earth in the summer. Celebrates the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, marking the beginning of Holy Week that culminates in Easter or Resurrection Sunday.

Ongoing through Friday, 4.30.2021

Holy Week

In Orthodox churches, the first day of Lent marks the beginning of the Great Fast, the final six weeks of a 10-week period of the Christian liturgical calendar leading up to Easter Sunday.

In Catholicism, Lent is a six-week observance (40 days excluding Sundays) beginning with Ash Wednesday and culminating in Holy Week.

In Protestant denominations, the meanings and practices of Lent vary widely among denominations, and the title "Lent" is not used.

Ongoing through Wednesday, 4.28.2021

Passover

Orthodox Christians observe this Sunday as different from the date when Jews observe the holiday. It commemorates the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, marking the beginning of Holy Week that culminates in Easter or Resurrection Sunday.

Religious and Philosophical Life Programs

Religious and Philosophical Life Programs, based in the Office of Religious Life, sponsors diverse, dynamic, and engaging spiritual, ethical, and cultural programs that reflect the diversity of Tufts University.

The chaplaincy is a dynamic hub for religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life on campus. We provide individuals with opportunities to think more deeply about the roles of faith and spirituality in their lives, to better understand the religious diversity of our world, and to engage in the cultural stories, founded in 1967 by Anant Pai. Largely a response to supporting children in learning about their traditions and cultures, the ALIM Summer Program is an intensive three-week retreat seeking to educate and empower students from around the world to engage with the study and practice of Islam. The ALIM Summer Program runs July 25 to August 14. Program runs July 25 to August 14.

Consultants. Graduate Academic Mentors are responsible for providing one-on-one and group academic skills mentoring and advising to students across campus. Graduate Writing Consultants work one-to-one with both undergraduate and graduate students to help them develop their writing skills.

Deadline: Sunday, April 25

To learn more about how to apply, please visit the Graduate Academic Mentor website. If you have questions or concerns about observing Ramadan this year, please reach out to Imam Abdul-Malik Merchant. For further Religious and Philosophical Life Programs information, visit the Religious and Philosophical Life Programs website.

May the peace, mercy, and blessings of God be upon you!
