coordinator in CAFE or none at all, are encouraged to apply! Please reach out to University Chaplaincy program throughout the summer to lead and launch CAFE. All returning students and graduating seniors, with past experience.

Applications due by Wednesday, January 26, 11:59 p.m. ET

Apply for CAFE Pre-Orientation 2022

chaplaincy.tufts.edu

Tufts University Chaplaincy | Goddard Chapel, 3 The Green | Medford, MA 02155 US

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of

One of many festivals to honor the advent of spring, this day is celebrated particularly in North India, where it is the Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to

Sadeh

These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Each summer, students from across Tufts spend ten weeks as Tisch Summer Fellows (TSF). Through this highly Application deadline: Friday, January 28, 2022, 11:59 p.m. ET

Harvard Square Homeless Shelter Volunteering with the Catholic Chaplaincy will have a simple prayer service led by Chaplain Dan, followed by fellowship time. You can

Roman Catholic Mass

protocols, the building will be closed except for meal pick up between 6:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. Please building, working on action items with local community organizations, and reflection with a grab-n-go dinner our annual MLK Day of Community Action on Saturday, January 29 at Breed Memorial Hall.. This year, we will be

How do you put your values into action? Join fellow Tufts students in reflecting and acting on this question during

MLK Day of Community Action

Pre-Celebration Lunch to Discuss “A Knock at Midnight”

Friday, January 21, 2022, 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. ET, held virtually of the Kings, and to continue to shape Tufts into a place of true belonging, equity, and care. Please email University second public event of three to bring us together as a community to deepen our understanding of the radical work activists Dr. Makeeba McCreary of the New Commonwealth Racial Equity and Social Justice Fund and Imari Paris

the Tufts community to the commitment that both Rev. Dr. King and Coretta Scott King shared to deep care of one proclaims: “When you stop hoping, you’re dying...in the midst of this hopelessness men and women reach out for

Save the date for the annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration. This year’s theme, Wednesday, January 26, 4:30 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. ET, held virtually

(Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr). The world needs you, and honoring and celebrating the life and work of

The liturgical calendar, which means numbered, counted or ordered. It is about keeping track of the rhythms of the season, the days, the weeks between Christmastide and Lent when we sink into the stories of Jesus’ life and ministry rather than Greetings to you this first week of the new semester.

nothing ordinary about Ordinary Time at all. It makes dailiness, stability, fidelity, and constancy the marks of what it we spend our time and what we tend quietly? Sr. Joan Chittister puts it perfectly when she writes that “There’s

In this time of ever-present unknowns, I invite you to tend to the green in your life—whether it is the promise of a seed yet to be sown, a wee sprout just peeking through the surface or a lush picture of something you have been nurturing and stewarding for years. Whatever you are growing, may it carry you through this challenging time. May it offer you perspective and rootedness.

Sr. Lynn Cooper