IN LIVING MEMORY: A CONCERT OF STORIES & SONGS

In recognition of Día de los Muertos and All Souls Day, the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life and the Harvard Divinity School presents In Living Memory: A Concert of Stories & Songs on Sunday, October 31st.

The evening will feature organ music, performances by the Enchanted and sQ!, and spoken word. The concert is held in the Goddard Chapel, with a reception to follow.

The concert is open to all, and reservations are recommended.

RSVP through the Harvard Divinity School calendar.

Upcoming Religious Celebrations and Observances

October 24

Diwali/Mahavir Nirvana

A Hindu festival of lights, Diwali marks the victory of good over evil by Vishnu in one of his many manifestations.

October 31

All Souls Day

Christian celebration of the lives of all the saints, especially those not having a special day; Orthodox churches also celebrate.

November 1

Samhain

The New Year and the final harvest festival, celebrating the last gifts of the Earth before winter and the return of the returning.

November 2

All Saints Day

Christian holiday honoring all the saints, especially those not having a special day.

November 8

All Souls Day

Christian celebration of the lives of all the saints, especially those not having a special day; Orthodox churches also celebrate.

November 9

Christian Martyrs Day

Tradition: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic

November 11

Armistice Day

November 18

Christian Martyrs Day

Tradition: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic

November 23

All Souls Day

Christian celebration of the lives of all the saints, especially those not having a special day; Orthodox churches also celebrate.

November 22

All Saints Day

Christian holiday honoring all the saints, especially those not having a special day.

November 27

Shadows

A community event that explores themes of death and grief and offers services for those who have experienced loss.

Join the Buddhist Chaplaincy for an event with Dr. Hyun Kyung Chung, who defines herself as a "salimist" (Korean Buddhist Theology for Authentic Transformation, with Dr. Hyun Kyung Chung)

St. Charles Borromeo's Day

Tradition: Catholic, Anglican

November 29

Observance of St. Charles Borromeo

Tradition: Catholic, Anglican

Join the Buddhist Chaplaincy for an event with Dr. Hyun Kyung Chung

November 30

Shadows

A community event that explores themes of death and grief and offers services for those who have experienced loss.

Join the Buddhist Chaplaincy for an event with Dr. Hyun Kyung Chung

Tradition: Catholic, Anglican