Virtual Heritage Resources
Contributed by Lindsay Randall
The Peabody has compiled a list of various institutions that offer digital resources, from virtual tours to artifact images. If you are a caregiver at home with children, these can be used to enhance their educational experiences as you work to continue their learning.

Tamaulipas Orchid
Contributed by Ryan Wheeler
The Peabody houses a small type collection of materials from Richard “Scotty” MacNeish’s work in Tamaulipas, Mexico. These artifacts include plant remains, basketry, twine, and other perishable materials. Learn more about MacNeish’s work and one of these preserved plant remains—an ancient orchid!

MARCH 2020
Being stuck at home has its ups and downs. Peabody Institute staff have been exploring digital resources for teaching, remotely touring other museums, and musing about the contents of our collection. We are happy to share those thoughts with you in this month’s newsletter. Please stay safe out there and take care of yourselves!
