October update
KEEPING YOU IN TOUCH

Thanksgiving & Winter Break Shuttles

Learning more about campus is a great way to test it out. They offer free tours that take you through a BSD, class, and meal in the Union. Here's a link to find out more and book your tour: [Link]

LSU Family Weekend

This year’s LSU Family Weekend is October 6th-9th. Be sure to plan your stay and book your hotel soon! To book your hotel and more information, visit: [Link]

A Note from the President

Hi Tiger Parents: As the start of the fall semester approaches, our goal is to provide a safe environment for our students. We have implemented several measures to ensure the safety of all students, faculty, and staff. Please check out the [Link] for more information.

Ask Your Tiger

If you have any questions regarding your Tiger's academic progress or extracurricular activities, please feel free to ask. We are here to help you.

Campus Highlights

LSU UREC is offering students a chance to learn about personal training. They will be offering workshops on how to improve your fitness and health. More information can be found [Link].

LSU Holiday Shuttle - Registration is Now Open!

Shuttles will be provided for both the Thanksgiving and Winter Breaks to transport you to and from campus. To register for the shuttle, visit [Link].

FALL IN LOVE WITH FALL FEST

Join us for our annual Fall Fest on October 23rd. There will be games, food, and music. This is a great opportunity to meet new people and enjoy the fall weather.

Let's Have a Skele-ton of Fun!

The LSU Office of Diversity is hosting our annual LSUnity Block Party on October 31. Join us for free food, a costume contest, giveaways, live music, and more. This is a great event to celebrate together the love and pride we have for LSU.

Thank a Donor Day

Join us on Tower Drive from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. for fresh produce, tasty treats, and $5 hot meals to grab on-the-go. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to thank our donors.

Flu Shots on the Geaux!

The LSU Office of Student Health Services will be administering the flu vaccine at convenient locations throughout campus on October 7-11. The vaccine is free to full-time students. You may contact Bursar Operations at 225-578-1173 for more information.

Let’s Have a Skele-ton of Fun!

The LSU Office of Diversity is hosting our annual LSUnity Block Party on October 31. Join us for free food, a costume contest, giveaways, live music, and more. This is a great event to celebrate together the love and pride we have for LSU.

Check out these important reminders as midterms arrive.

- Please help students in their academic journeys. LSU's campus is designed to help all students succeed. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask.

- Keep an eye out for important announcements and details about upcoming events.

- For midterms amid the excitement of football season. While we hope your Tiger is excited for one of LSU’s most beloved traditions, Homecoming! From October 6-13, we are jam-packing events each day, leading up to the beloved Homecoming Parade. This year, we are Geauxing Back in Time. You can check out the parade route and more information [Link].

- Visit [Link] for more information on football games.

The LSU Office of Diversity is hosting our annual LSUnity Block Party on October 31. Join us for free food, a costume contest, giveaways, live music, and more. This is a great event to celebrate together the love and pride we have for LSU.

As always, thank you for trusting us with your Tiger. Their time at LSU is full of learning, growth, and fun. We are here to help you make the most of it.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

LSU President
F. King Alexander

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us.