Join us for an alternative spring break that facilitates a first hand understanding of African American culture and Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Through service and visits to historical sites, this break will foster a bond among chapter members from all three councils, as we reflect upon the values and mission of the Cliff Alexander Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life. Held from March 22 through March 29 in Atlanta, Georgia, participants will pay an as yet to be determined fee (no more than $200) and will need to be available for pre-trip meetings during Spring Semester. Applications will be available in mid-January, 2020. For more information, please contact Syd Feeny, feeneyss@miamioh.edu.
