The WCU candidate must be a full time registered student, a U.S. citizen and in the upper quartile of five Universities in Scotland. Philadelphia region are invited to submit a candidate for study abroad in their junior year at one of

An Opportunity to Study in Scotland

Commuter Services wants to remind them of the following tips:

- There is in the best interest of your student to participate in the conduct process.
- If your student receives a police citation or residence hall documentation, the Office of Student Conduct will reach out to the student.

As the semester winds down, encourage your student to:

- Consider what you are posting on social media, so you do not give away clues that you are leaving.
- Unplug your television, toaster, computer, and other appliances.
- Getting lights that are on a timer.

Students in the work study program can apply to work over the winter break by completing the course.

First Day of Spring Semester: December 3

If your spare key is in a plastic rock, under the mat, in the mailbox, or in another obvious place, it is easy for a would-be burglar to find. Perhaps it would be better to find a safe place for your key.

The WCU Financial Aid Office is pleased to report that over 9,000 students filed a 2020-21 FAFSA in October. We are also pleased to announce that Vanessa Horton won our $250 Book Scholarship Raffle. If you still need assistance filing your FAFSA, the FAFSA Filing Season is here!

As always, we are proud of the WCU Ram Fam, and we love you no matter what. How is (name of student organization) going? Do you have any students who have given up on their dreams? If so, what can we do to help?

When your student comes home from breaks, you will recognize that they are changing, which is an opportunity for you to reassess your relationship with them. When your child was young, you were their parent. As they grow older, they become a friend, but the role of being a parent never changes. Do your best to continue to set boundaries, provide direction, and offer support.

If parents or students have additional questions about these options, please feel free to reach out to ParentFamilyRelations@wcupa.edu

Topics include:

- Student Conduct
- Financial Aid
- College Planning

ParentFam Podcast:

Episode 1 - Parenting Through College
Episode 2 - Dining at WCU
Episode 3 - Home for the Holidays
Episode 4 - Graduation

RAM FAM MONTHLY | NOVEMBER 2019

- December 2 - November
- December 9 - November
- December 13-15 - November
- December 16 - November
- December 19 - November
- December 20 - November
- December 21 - November
- December 22 - November
- December 23 - November
- December 24 - November
- December 25 - November
- December 26 - November
- December 27 - November
- December 28 - November
- December 29 - November
- December 30 - November
- December 31 - November

A Message from President Fiorentino

As the semester winds down, I urge you to make sure that your student is safe at home, in the classroom, and in the community. As always, we are proud of the WCU Ram Fam, and we love you no matter what.

Lexie McCarthy, Director, Parent and Family Relations

Did you know that West Chester University has three gardens on campus? These gardens provide not only fresh produce but also non-perishable food, personal care items, school supplies, and winter and career clothing.

A Message from President Fiorentino

As always, we are proud of the WCU Ram Fam, and we love you no matter what. Have your beliefs been challenged or changed at all? How is (name of student organization) going? How are your students adjusting to life at WCU?

When your student comes home from breaks, you will recognize that they are changing, which is an opportunity for you to reassess your relationship with them. When your child was young, you were their parent. As they grow older, they become a friend, but the role of being a parent never changes. Do your best to continue to set boundaries, provide direction, and offer support.

When your student comes home from breaks, you will recognize that they are changing, which is an opportunity for you to reassess your relationship with them. When your child was young, you were their parent. As they grow older, they become a friend, but the role of being a parent never changes. Do your best to continue to set boundaries, provide direction, and offer support.

Thank you for all you do to support your students.

AMcCarthy@wcupa.edu

Office of Parent and Family Relations

We love you no matter what.