Courses and Thursday, August 29, the second floor of Lawrence Hall or send us an email.

If you are a parent or family member of a new student, ask your student to complete the modules by the end of the first week of classes. Think About It provides your student with information on alcohol and other drugs, sexual health, and other topics.

Talking with College Students About Alcohol Use

If you have not had a chance to view the parent guide, please take a look at this short video. It shows you what to discuss with your student and how to help them understand that this may not be an easy transition. Whether your student is a first-year or a returning student, it is never too late to engage in conversation around alcohol and other drug use.

Student Health Services Update

As the semester progresses, it is common for stress levels to increase. A non-inclusive environment.

Wellness Promotion Reminder

The staff and faculty of WCU are highly invested in working with our students to ensure a safe and inclusive environment.

The Division of Student Affairs works collaboratively with other University programs, departments, and offices to encourage your student to watch for "Welcome Back" programs during the first week of classes! The University offers many opportunities for new and returning students to get involved. Please encourage your student to explore these opportunities and take advantage of the support and resources available to them.

Welcome new Ram Fam members to the WCU community and returning families. The start of the fall semester is less
