47%

BEST VOTER TURNOUT SINCE 1966!

THAT SAID...

OVER HALF DIDN'T SHOW UP.

2018 Midterm Elections brought out 47% of registered voters nationally and 44.7% in TN.

That's an IMPROVEMENT, but we can do better.

Let's review the results and build on that for Nov.3, 2020.

Results in Tennessee

Republicans continue to dominate the House and Senate. Governor-elect Bill Lee, however, is looking for a bipartisan Herculean-effort to tackle major issues like education, opioid crisis, and healthcare.

House / 26D - 73R

Senate / 4D - 14R

National Results

Democrats secured 218 seats in midterms to win control of the House / 231D - 198R.

Republicans firmed up their position in the Senate. / 52R - 47D.

The new Democratic House majority will bring balance to Washington for the final two years of President Trump's first term. Balanced power is a good thing because major questions are looming about health care, immigration, and government spending.

Women Making History

Rashida Tlaib (D-MI) and Ilhan Omar (D-MN) became the first Muslim women elected to Congress; Debra Haaland (D-NM) and Sharice Davids (D-KS) are the first Native American congresswomen; Veronica Escobar (D-TX) and Sylvia Garcia (D-TX) are the first Latina congresswomen; and Jahana Hayes (D-CT) is the first black congresswoman.

There are also some statewide firsts, like Abby Finkenauer (R) is the first congresswoman from Iowa; Marsha Blackburn (R), the first female senator from Tennessee; And Ayanna Pressley (D), the first black woman to rep Massachusetts.

WHAT DOES ALL THAT MEAN?

WHERE THERE'S SMOKE, THERE'S FIRE.

Whether you voted blue or red, the GOOD NEWS is that Democracy is not dead. In 2020 we can infuse new blood in our leadership through elections AND by sharing our ideas for a better democracy.

FLAME ON!

Keep the passion stoked for democracy and liberty, AND the legislative process that guards and maintains them. Keep abreast of critical issues through our CAN reports.

Charles Sargent | 1945-2018

TN lost a great leader. TN State Representative Charles Sargent (R) Franklin passed away. His knowledge, kindness, and ability to work across the aisles will be sorely missed. God bless you, Charles Sargent.
