A Message from President Fiorentino

Dear Student and Parent,

As your student prepares for the academic year, they may be feeling a range of emotions: excited, eager, perhaps a bit anxious, too. Rest assured, all of us at WCU are ready to assist – from the residence hall move-in teams at the residence halls to help with the heavy lifting to the bookstore staff who will ensure your student buys the right books for the right class.

Move-in Day teams at the residence halls to help with the heavy lifting to the bookstore staff who will ensure your student buys the right books for the right class. A Welcome Dinner in Lawrence Dining Hall on Friday, August 23 for all of our first-year students. Your first-year students (particularly first-year students) about alcohol use. Parents and families to be used to guide conversations with their families.

West Chester University is proud to offer a new resource for parents and families who discuss alcohol with their student. The Parents Guide to Alcohol is a helpful tool for parents and families who discuss alcohol with their student. The Parents Guide to Alcohol is a helpful tool for parents and families who discuss alcohol with their student. Parents and families are encouraged to use this handbook to guide conversations with their student. The handbook is available online.

As you ramp up for the start of the semester, I encourage you to check out additional WCU parent and family resources. For those of you who are seasoned WCU parents and families, this is your first issue of the Ram Fam monthly newsletter. Each month, this newsletter will include conversation topics for your student, a note from President Fiorentino, campus happenings, important dates and deadlines, and so much more!

For those of you who are supporting first-year students, we encourage you to read our Student Health Services Update. This update includes important dates and deadlines, as well as immunization requirements.

We are just a few short weeks away from the start of the semester, and we are gearing up for another golden year at West Chester University! In this issue, you will find important dates and deadlines, as well as immunization requirements. You will also find conversation topics for your student, a note from President Fiorentino, and College Students About Alcohol. Finally, you will find an update on the Student Health Services web portal.

As always, we can’t wait to welcome you and your students back to campus in just a few weeks! As always, we can’t wait to welcome you and your students back to campus in just a few weeks! For daily updates, please subscribe to our email list.
