Spring has finally arrived!

Spring Bootstrap program runs Thursday, March 18 and Friday, March 19 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. At the Engaging Science and Engineering Center, scientists, educators, and professionals will explore ways to engage students in STEM. Participants will brainstorm ways to make science education more engaging and fun for students. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit clemson.edu/sce/teach.

Join us on April 6 for T.I.G.E.R. Field Day

Explore the wonders of the natural world with animals from the Bob Campbell Museum of Natural History, view reptiles like an anole and chameleon, learn about snakes in South Carolina, discover the amazing properties of the chemical world, and learn about the physics required to power an electromagnetic cannon.

The Clemson Spring Football Game is Saturday, April 6

Before you watch the orange and white battle it out at 2:30 p.m., join SCIENCE at the T.I.G.E.R. Field Day beginning at 10 a.m. on the Littlejohn Coliseum lawn. Field Day is free and open to the public, so children, students, faculty, and friends will be there to cheer for the students.

The College of Science awards the Doctoral Hooding degrees on Friday, April 12

Doctoral Hooding is held in Greenville. During the ceremony, President Jim Clements will shake the hands of each new ring wearer. Family and friends will be there to cheer for the students.

The Spring 2019 Ring Ceremony is April 7th

Spring Break brought a gorgeous week of sunny, crisp days in bloom! Hope your Spring Break was 2:30 p.m. on May 10.
