Attention RSO Leaders!

Meet & Greet for Academic, Volunteer/Service, Political/Activists RSO’s on Wednesday, February 12 from 2:00 – 6:00 PM in the Center for the Arts Concert Hall.

All RSO leaders are invited to attend this opportunity to collaborate, network, and refreshments. Please be sure to select at least one or more members of your executive board to attend.

If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Snyder, Associate Director for Leadership Education and Development at lsnyder2@gmu.edu.

The Leadership Education and Development (LEAD) Office provides leadership training, resources, services, and recognition to empower students to create positive social change. We work with both students and professional staff to provide leadership education for your student organization. If you would like to have the LEAD Office to facilitate a program, please go to:

https://lead.gmu.edu/requests/.

If you would like to have the LEAD Office to facilitate a program, please go to:

https://lead.gmu.edu/requests/. The Emerging Leaders Program is an eight-week course designed to introduce leadership topics to a cohort of new and beginning leaders. Topics include leadership styles, communication, understanding of values, team building, group dynamics, and much more.

We look forward to working with you!
