Graduate Student Newsletter - July 28, 2023

Dear UO graduate studies community,

We hope you are having a wonderfulsummer and look forward to seeing you soon. Our regular Division of Graduate Studies newsletter provides updates, faculty, and staff with graduate studies news, opportunities, and more.

Events

gradFAMILIES: Farewell to Summer Barbecue and Resource Fair
Saturday, September 16 from 1:00-5:00pm at Spencer View Apartments. The Family GE will showcase resources available to residents who identify as graduate students and their families. The event will help you connect with resources and peers who will help you succeed in graduate school. Location: Spencer View Apartments. The event and the features fun lunch by UO catering, a moon bounce, and more. Sponsored by the Division of Graduate Studies. Email: familyge@uoregon.edu

Graduate Student Welcome Lunch and Resource Fair
Tuesday, September 19 from 11:00am-1:30pm in the EMU Ballroom: Join us at a welcome lunch for ALL graduate students, new and returning! (Register for the event) and meet fellow students, learn about financial, wellness, social, and academic resources for graduate students, and eat delicious FREE food. Sponsored by the Division of Graduate Studies and GTFF.

GE Day of Teaching
Wednesday, September 20 at 9:00am-5:00pm in Strub Hall: Register for this event that provides new GEs access to high-quality teaching resources and invites you in to a vibrant and supported UO teaching community. Register to work with the Teaching Engagements Project (TEP) and campus partners, such as UO Online or American English Institute, to learn inclusive, engaged, and research-led teaching practices so you can begin your UO teaching career with confidence. This event is a open to all faculty, staff, and graduate students. We encourage you to bring your love and positive energy.

Funding & Support

Graduate Student Assistance Fund: Summer Support for International GE: International students who had a GE appointment between Fall 2022 and Spring 2023 as part of a multi-year funding offer who do not have a GE appointment in Summer 2023 may apply for financial support up to $300.

The Graduate Student Assistance Fund provides emergency funding up to $300 for all graduate students.

American English Institute (AEI) Graduate Preparation
The UO AEI offers the Graduate Preparation Program (GPP) from August 28 to September 13 for newly admitted graduate students. This course focuses on academic resources, graduate culture, graduate expectations, graduate community building, and targeted graduate level language polishing where needed.

LGBTQIA+ Student Emergency Fund: This can be used once during each academic year to provide funding for LGBTQIA+ students (independent of citizenship status or GE status) to pay for tuition, textbooks, or UO fees. The fund is available to pay for tuition, textbooks, or UO fees.

The Student Food Pantry will be open over Summer:

The UO Libraries is Taking a Quack Break
All branches of the UO Libraries will be closed on July 28 for an all-library personal retreat. While branch-wide closures like this are extremely rare because we put patrons first, we’re taking this day for some team building around our new mission: Informing research and learning breakthroughs for Oregon.
