Dear Colleagues,

With gratitude, longer winter break period.

Once again, thank you. Throughout 2020, Duke faculty and staff have gone above and beyond to support our students’ intellectual, social and emotional wellbeing. In August, we highlighted some of our students’ positive experiences during the unique challenges of this semester. We are also here to partner with you to help make sure our students have the support that they need.

2020 Election

As a reminder, classes are scheduled to take place on November 3rd. President Price’s recent message noted that faculty have the flexibility to make alternate arrangements regarding coursework and scheduling, if you are concerned about a specific student for any reason, please don’t hesitate to contact the DukeReach team. One-to-one conversations, listen to students’ concerns, and, if necessary, refer them to the resources and events.

Duke-sponsored resources available to support faculty and students include:

- DukeReach: A convenient way for Duke students to receive no-cost mental health support. Students can sign up at the website above using the service key DUKE2020.
- Keep Learning: In just two clicks, students can select one of two types of blended learning packages and will reach out with additional resources.
- Blue Devils Care: Vote early, vote often.
- Student Mental Health and Wellness: Resources include:
  - Personal Assistance Service (PAS): An additional layer of support for students. If you are concerned about a specific student for any reason, please don’t hesitate to contact the DukeReach team. One-to-one conversations, listen to students’ concerns, and, if necessary, refer them to the resources and events.

For all of our undergraduates, this election is the first Presidential election that they will vote in. This may create additional anxiety and stress.

One way to help students is to make sure that student with whatever help they may need, from mental health resources.
