Dear Colleague,

"We don't like it, we LOVE it," says my sister, who just returned from her first safari. "You never told me how nice it was!" Well, I DID. But there are certain things in life that must be experienced to understand how special they are, not to mention the fact that she didn't listen to her younger sister. (At least she believed me when I said she should go to Africa!)

We at Emerging Destinations have a lot going on these days. Matthew from JW Marriott Masai Mara and Crowne Plaza Nairobi Airport is visiting Canada and the U.S. in late November and early December. Check below for details and let me know if you would like to meet him. Stops include Toronto, Denver, USTOA and NYC.

Jenna is headed back to Southern Africa, visiting the Royal Livingstone, Bazaruto Island, and EcoTraining. I'm visiting Kenya & Tanzania in November. I'll also be at WTM in London — let me know if you're attending!

See below the latest news on our portfolio of cool companies in cool places including news on adventure options at Vic Falls and spa offerings at the Royal Livingstone and Avani Vic Falls, Babanango's student camp Matatane, and "How to Become a Bird Nerd" with EcoTraining. (I knew I had succumbed to birding fever when I purchased a binocular harness!), and more info on the soon-to-open JW Marriott Masai Mara, which was just named one of "The 23 Most Anticipated Luxury Hotel Openings for 2023" by Forbes.

Happy Halloween everyone! And as my daughter always says to me, "Make good choices!"

Best regards,

The Emerging Destinations team
Jessie, Jane, Jenna & Ana
