February marks the debut of our Cultural Conversation Series. In the past Cultural Conversations was a benefit of membership, but in 2021 we are offering Cultural Conversations as our gift to you thanks to the generous support we've received from PNC – Arts Alive!

For now, this series is appearing virtually so that we can rest assured that everyone who participates is staying healthy and safe. For anyone who has visited the gallery, you know that our space is compact which makes it difficult to hold in person gatherings. So this pivot to virtual for Cultural Conversation and other gallery experiences, like Sunset Concerts, is the safest option for now. If you can't join us live online, the sessions will be recorded.

Don't forget we also have a rare opportunity to virtually meet Clyde Butcher during his virtual "Meet & Greet" on February 11 at 2 PM. We are so excited to have Eve Samples, executive director of the Friends of the Everglades, serve as our host for the hour-long talk with Clyde. Register for that session to get your link to join the conversation. Ticket proceeds are being shared with the Friends of the Everglades. Tickets are $25.

Thanks for your support and participation! Stay safe,

Nancy K. Turrell, Executive Director
