Leah's Story: Be the ONE

For three years, Leah's life was a constant cycle of change.

All she wanted was stability.

You can Be the One.

Be the steady voice. Be the advocate who stays.

Be the One who makes a lasting difference.

Become a CASA volunteer.

2025 Volunteer of the Year

Debbie Fox

Sworn in September 2020, Debbie Fox has been a dedicated CASA volunteer for over four years, advocating for nine children across five complex cases. A retired healthcare specialist, Debbie brings patience, insight, and a keen attention to detail—especially in high-needs and Family Treatment Court (FTC) cases where her thoughtful advocacy has made a lasting impact.

Debbie's greatest strength lies in her ability to build genuine trust with children, families, and community partners...

By the Numbers 2024: CASA's Commitment

Collateral contacts are people like teachers, counselors, or doctors who provide valuable insight about a child's well-being, helping CASA volunteers better understand and advocate for the child's needs.

In 2024, CASA volunteers made 6,078 collateral contacts.
