

Student Life Weekly

We're almost there, Lakers! We're almost done with a particularly challenging semester, and winter break is just around the corner. We want to express our gratitude toward everyone who kept themselves and their friends safe by wearing a mask and practicing social distancing this semester. Good luck with your finals, and aim to finish the year strong!

Happy Holidays: Celebrating All Religions and Cultures Within the Grand Valley Community

At GV, we have lots of students from different backgrounds, religions, and cultures. Now that it's December, we're seeing a lot of Christmas advertisements, Christmas music, and Christmas traditions everywhere we look. This is wonderful for those who celebrate, but it's also important to acknowledge other religions and cultures that might feel forgotten this time of year. Hanukkah is just one example of the many different holidays celebrated during December. Keep reading to learn more about Hanukkah and also how it's celebrated at Grand Valley!
