OFFICE OF NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS (ONIF)

DAAD RISE for Undergraduate Students- Deadline: December

15! RISE stands for Research Internships in Science and Engineering. RISE Germany offers undergraduate students a paid opportunity to complete a summer research internship at top German universities and research institutions. Students are matched with a host university or institute according to their area of interest (biology, chemistry, physics, earth sciences, engineering, or a closely related field). German language is not required.

APAICS Kakehashi Program- Deadline: January 2! The Kakehashi Program to Japan (March 15-22, 2022) is designed to promote people-to-people exchange between Japan and the United States. The program will provide participants with an enhanced understanding of Japanese economics, society, history, culture, politics, and diplomatic policies and encourage individuals to play an active role in the future of U.S.-Japan relations. The students selected to participate in the program shall be comprised of individuals from Asian American families or have some Asian ancestry. Open to U.S. citizens or U.S. permanent residents, currently enrolled undergraduate or graduate students.

Foreign Affairs IT Fellowship- Deadline: January 10. Funded by the U.S. Department of State, the Foreign Affairs Information Technology (FAIT) Fellowship is a path to a career in the Foreign Service. This two-year fellowship provides undergraduate and graduate students with up to $75,000 in academic funding for an IT-related degree (junior and senior year of a bachelor's degree or a two-year master's degree). Fellows also get two summer internships (one in Washington, D.C. and one at an embassy or consulate abroad), professional development and mentorship.

Fund for Education Abroad- Deadline: January 12. FEA invests in deserving U.S. undergraduates who intend to study abroad. Selected students receive up to $5,000 towards study abroad expenses including travel costs. FEA is currently accepting applications from students intending to study abroad during Summer 2022, Fall 2022, and Academic Year 2022-2023.
