Funded by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), the Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) is currently accepting applications from students with United States citizenship for the 2022-2023 academic year. FEA invests in deserving students who wish to expand their view and lead with an entrepreneurial mindset. Set up a meeting with an admission director to learn more.

Deadline: January 31, 2022

Details:
LMU is currently accepting applications for students with United States citizenship. Fellowship is a path to a career in the Foreign Service. This two-year fellowship provides undergraduate and graduate students with up to $75,000 in academic funding for an IT-related degree (junior and senior year of a bachelor’s degree or first year of a master’s degree). Fellows also get two summer internships (one in Washington, D.C. and one at an embassy or consulate abroad), professional development and mentorship.

Deadline: January 24th or until the program is full.
