Master in Global Entrepreneurial Management

Study Abroad

STUDY ABROAD THE RUBIN

LMU-Funded programs and grants accepting applications for writing awards: Winter 2022, Spring 2023, and Fall 2023.

Selected students receive up to $5,000 towards study abroad expenses including travel costs. FEA is currently accepting applications from students intending to study abroad during Summer 2022, Fall 2022, and Academic Year 2022-2023.

Studying and working abroad is a unique way to develop personal, cultural, and professional development and mentorship. Private sector, government, and non-profit organizations have an increasing need for employees with international experience, skills, and knowledge. FEA provides students with opportunities to combine academic and professional experience.

OFFICE OF NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS (ONIF)

The Foreign Affairs IT Fellowship is a path to a career in the Foreign Service. This two-year fellowship provides undergraduate and graduate students with up to $75,000 in academic funding for an IT-related degree (junior and senior year of a bachelor’s degree or the first two years of a master’s degree). Fellows also get two summer internships (one in Washington, D.C. and one at an embassy or consulate abroad), professional development, and career mentoring.

The LMU Study Abroad team wishes you a restful holiday season’s greetings! And bon voyage to our outbound spring semester students!

Not ready to study abroad yet? You can also use our online appointment service to help you order your passport or renew your passport, do not wait!

U.S. Passport processing is still very delayed. If you need to apply for a new passport, please visit the State Department’s web page to learn more about passport processing.
