Not ready to study abroad yet?

- LMU Faculty-Led programs are accepting applications on a rolling basis until January 24th or until the program is full.

Summer Programs

- FEA: Invests in deserving U.S. undergraduates who intend to study abroad. Selected students receive up to $5,000 towards study abroad expenses including travel costs. FEA is currently accepting applications from students intending to study abroad during Summer 2022, Fall 2022, and Academic Year 2022-2023.

FEA offers

- A two-year fellowship (with the option to extend for a third year of study) for teaching English abroad (TEFL) as a professional development opportunity (one in Washington, D.C. and one at an embassy or consulate abroad), professional development and mentorship.
- Funding for an IT-related degree (junior and senior year of a bachelor's degree or for the second year of a two-year master's degree). Fellows also get two summer internships (one in the Washington area and one abroad) and a career development and mentorship program.
- The FEA program shall be comprised of individuals from Asian American families or have a close relationship with some Asian ancestry.

Season's Greetings!

- The Kakehashi Program to Japan (March 15-22, 2022) is designed to promote people-to-people exchange between Japan and the United States. The program will provide participants with an enhanced understanding of Japanese economics, society, history, culture, and politics, and diplomatic policies and encourage individuals to play an active role in the future of U.S.-Japan relations. The students selected to participate in the Kakehashi Program will receive an honorarium of $2,500. Applications are due January 2.
