PilotLegis RPG

Assistant Executive Director

Ryan Kovach has joined PilotLegis as Assistant Executive Director. Mr. Kovach is a seasoned leader focusing on compliance, auditing, contract negotiation, policy development, information security and training. Previously, Mr. Kovach was Associate Director of Risk Management at Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP. Mr. Kovach received a Doctorate of Law from Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois Institute of Technology and a Bachelor of Arts from Loras College.

“Ryan is the perfect business partner for the PilotLegis Board and Aon’s Professional Services team to continue to grow this prestigious risk purchasing group of premier midsize law firms. His deep understanding of the risk issues facing law firms, and their clients will play a critical role in helping all these organizations navigate the evolving risk landscape. I’m excited to see how PilotLegis grows under his leadership,” said Amanda Brady, Managing Director and Chief Client Officer of The Alexander Group.

PILOTLEGIS

PilotLegis RPG is a risk-purchasing consortium that provides a unique opportunity for select mid-sized law firms seeking a greater level of control over their professional liability insurance program. PilotLegis has a passion for helping law firms identify and reduce their risk, leading to fewer claims, better service for claims when they do arise, and stronger long-term relationships with underwriters. Candidates undergo a thorough screening process that involves an onsite assessment of practices. Member firms typically have 30 to 200 attorneys and focus on business transactions, commercial litigation, insurance defense and other areas of defense litigation, real estate and tax work, estates and trusts, and intellectual property.
