Dear Colleague,

Greetings again from Buenos Aires! Even though we're in the countdown to fall, summer vibes are still here and staying for longer...amazing sunny days are lighting up my life in South America.

Next week (February 23rd & 24th to be exact) we're hosting the Re•think South America Travel Show powered by Latam Airlines. This virtual event is free of charge for travel buyers like you and we've already confirmed qualified exhibitors from Ecuador, Colombia, Chile, Argentina, Peru and Brazil. If you're interested in attending - and scheduling virtual meetings with the suppliers of your choice - there's still time to register. Please do it here!

Some of our clients in the Americas - like Enchanted Expeditions in Ecuador and Las Torres Reserve in Chile - are offering last minute specials for the rest of February, March and April.

Meanwhile, our friends in Argentina (Grand Hotels Lux), Colombia (Colombian Journeys), Costa Rica (Travel Pioneers) and Chile (Chile Concept) are already working on proposals for the 2022-2023 season. It might sound crazy, but they're already taking bookings for...Christmas!

We highly recommend that you take a look below for the latest news and interesting blogs from our portfolio of cool companies in cool places! Let's start planning a trip to South or Central America!

Best regards,

Ana, on behalf of The Emerging Destinations team (Jane + Jessie + Jenna + Ana)

News at a Glance

Travel Pioneers

- Important update regarding COVID-19 regulations in Costa Rica! As of January 21st and until March 7th, commercial establishments and mass activities can choose to voluntarily request the Covid-19 vaccination QR code from their customers in order to expand their capacity. Further information as well as current safety protocols and entry requirements to the country can be found at the Costa Rica Tourism Board's website here.
- Panama welcomes visitors from all countries, either if they are fully vaccinated or not. However, non vaccinated travelers will have to present a negative Covid-19 test for entry. Furthermore, non vaccinated travelers arriving from or that have transited through High Risk Countries in the last 15 days will be required to quarantine for 72 hours in a hotel, at their own cost. Safety protocols for the country require masks in public and some towns have mandated a curfew. You can read complete guidelines at the Panama Official Site here or contact us and we will advise on specifics.

Las Torres Reserve

- There's still time to plan a trip to Torres del Paine National Park, the 8th Wonder of the World. Recoleta's Culinary Oasis

A fusion of Argentine and global cuisine created by executive chef Luciano Grimaldi, Club 31 Bar & Resto at the Recoleta Grand Hotel offers an oasis of peace and quiet and incredible flavors in the heart of Buenos Aires. Read more here.

"Pura Vida" - Living the Life in Costa Rica

You're like to hear the term "Pura Vida" the minute you land in Costa Rica. It's used a lot like "Aloha", a way that locals say hello and goodbye. But it also sums up the country's appeal - breathtaking nature, fascinating wildlife, pristine beaches and endless adventure. Continue reading here.

Chile's Colorful Riviera Coast

Just a two-hour drive from Santiago, Chile's Central Coast boasts landscapes and activities reminiscent of the French or Italian rivieras - the colorful waterfront of Valparaiso and the sun-splashed beaches of Viña del Mar, complemented by some of the country's best restaurants, a coastal wine region and endless views. Read more here.

Colombia's Peaceful Pacific Coast

The Caribbean coast has a bigger party scene and lots more human history. But Colombia's under-explored Pacific coast is the place to head for wildlife, empty beaches and total tranquility.

The region offers scuba diving, birdwatching and hikes along indescribably beautiful trails. More here.

Ecuador: How Far Are You Willing to Go?

Like the Ecuadorian road trip comedy "Qué tan lejos?" (How Much Further?), a journey from Quito to Cuenca is the perfect way to discover the awesome landscapes and incredible culture of the country's highlands.

Let Enchanted Expeditions pland your route through the heart of the Andes, a trip that blends colonial and indigenous cultures via colorful markets, charming town and villages, impressive architecture, pre-Columbian artifacts and ruins, a myriad of arts and crafts. Continue reading here.

Pumas, Condors, Guanacos...and Now Dinosaurs?

A team of paleontologists from the University of Chile researchers recently discovered 74-million-year-old dinosaur fossils in Torres del Paine. Uncovered in an inhospitable area just outside the national park, the nearly complete skeleton was identified as a new species of armored dinosaur called Stegouros elengassen. More here.

A Rare Breed of Madness

Canyon Madness Ranch is ideally suited for a special type of adventure seeker. If you harbor a healthy passion for, or even a mild obsession with, equestrian and/or firearm-related activities, and other outdoor activities, this could be your version of paradise. Continue reading here.
