COLLEGE NEWS AND INFORMATION

Pathways to Success Fair Leads Students to Academic & Career Paths

On September 20, more than 400 students took part in the inaugural Pathways to Success Fair. The event introduced students to IVC's 10 academic interest areas and the program options and potential career pathways linked to each of them. Additionally, there were 23 booths, each representing various student support centers, services, and vibrant campus communities. See Photos »

Puente Program Hosts Author and Speaker Erica Alfaro

The Puente Program hosted guest speaker Erica Alfaro on September 19 as part of the month-long Latinx celebration. Erica was a high school dropout, a teenage mother, and a survivor of domestic violence who, after overcoming numerous adversities, managed to reinvent herself and become the remarkable woman she is today. She is an award-winning author, keynote speaker, and education advocate. Her story gained worldwide recognition in 2019 when her graduation picture went viral, making headlines around the globe.
